CORONER'S INQUEST

DEATH OF WILLIAM MURPHY OF
LA CANADA INVESTIGATED
BY THE CORONER

An inquest was held at the Pulliam undertaking parlors this morning over the body of William Murphy, the La Canada rancher who died Thursday afternoon as a result of gunshot wounds received earlier in the afternoon. At first it was supposed that death had been due to an accident, the gun going off in the hands of Murphy when he was hunting some cats that had been disturbing him, but after certain investigations by Joe Margolis, county detective, it was thought best to detain Mrs. Murphy and go into the matter more thoroughly.

The jury consisted of E. R. Cherry, C. E. Higley, W. J. McCarroll, J. M. Eshom, David Francy and Frank Merriken, and after viewing the body and hearing the testimony of the witnesses and deliberating for some time, they brought in a verdict of death from a wound received from a gun in the hands of some one unknown to the jury.

A number of witnesses were called, the first being Mrs. Murphy, widow of the deceased, who had been detained in the county jail over Monday night after investigations made by Joe Margolis, county detective. Mrs. Murphy was excused without testimony before the coroner's jury after objection by her counsel.

Rev. D. Andrew Lane, a minister who is cultivating a small ranch at La Canada near the Murphy residence, was called. The Murphy home was on what is known as the Nekuda place. Mr. Lane testified that when he heard the shot and the moans he ran to where the injured man lay near the tent and asked him how it had happened. Murphy replied that his wife had shot him. Mr. Lane called some neighbors and the injured man was removed to the house and Dr. Hunt of Glendale called. He was so badly injured, however, that he died within about an hour after the shooting.

Mr. C. O. Pulliam, the undertaker in charge of the body, was called and testified that when he went to La Canada for the body he questioned Mrs. Murphy very closely and she said that Murphy had been trying to kill some cats and had accidentally shot himself. There was one dead cat found lying near the body, but testimony brought out the fact that it had been dead several hours.

Mr. Anton G. Williams, a neighbor of the Murphys, testified that he had come in response to hearing the shot and the groans and had helped move Murphy into the cabin and had removed his clothing and done what he could for him until the arrival of the physician. He also testified that Murphy had said in reply to a question as to how it happened, "I stepped on it." Mr. Williams identified the clothing as that of the dead man, with the exception of the shoes. There was a pair of black shoes which Mrs. Murphy had said were the ones worn by her husband at the time of his death, and Mr. Williams declared those were not the ones he removed from the body, but that another pair of tan shoes were the ones.

Another witness, John Washburn of Los Angeles, testified that he was at La Canada early Thursday morning and had seen and talked with Murphy and had brought Murphy's gun, which was unloaded, over to the house and set it against a post. He also testified that Murphy was intoxicated and that he heard some woman yelling inside the tent and Murphy said it was his wife and that she was "jagged" also. He left immediately, and did not see Mrs. Murphy.

Dr. A. F. Wagner, who performed the autopsy, said that he found about 130 shot wounds on the left arm and in the upper part of the left thigh; that the direction of the shot was from above and that there were no powder marks. He placed the cause of death as a gunshot wound causing hemorrhage in the abdomen.

Mr. Claire Woolwine, deputy district attorney, was present at the inquest and questioned the witnesses. It is thought that he will issue a formal complaint today. The inquest was conducted by Coroner Hartwell.

NOT MUCH BUSINESS

There was not much business on the slate to be transacted at the city trustees' meeting Monday evening. Several references were made by the city manager and others to the bad condition of Colorado boulevard.

There is so much travel on that street that it is doubly important the roadway should be in first-class condition.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

QUESTION OF COLORADO BOULEVARD LIGHTS DISCUSSED AT LENGTH

The regular weekly meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale was held at the city hall Monday evening, April 19th, 1915. Present: O. A. Lane, president of the board; Trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and George Williams; also present: T. W. Watson, city manager; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department; Edw. M. Lynch, city engineer, and George Hoffman, treasurer.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. John W. Henderson made application to do private street work at the corner of Brand and Colorado boulevards. The request was granted.

Franklin P. Wilson and A. M. Parker appeared before the trustees asking that the city might furnish a float to be used in the May Fiesta at Los Angeles. These gentlemen stated that it is the intention of the Elks' Patrol to participate in the parade on that occasion and they asked the trustees if it would be possible for them to arrange to have the Glendale municipal band precede the Patrol in the parade. These gentlemen also stated that it is their intention to have a special auto in which will ride the officers and certain members of the Elks. This automobile will be appropriately decorated for the occasion and will bear the name "Glendale" in large letters. While these gentlemen are members of the order of Elks and are interested in having the Elks well represented, yet their chief desire is to have Glendale well advertised.

It seems to be the opinion of the board of trustees that the better plan would be to have a municipal float prepared, the framework of which might serve to use on future occasions. On motion the question of the float was referred to the city manager.

The question of employing the band for the purpose of participating in the parade at the May Fiesta in Los Angeles was also referred to the city manager.

A lengthy discussion was entered into concerning the single and five globe lighting standards. Property owners on Colorado boulevard between Central avenue and Glendale avenue had requested that proper papers be prepared for circulating a petition to get signatures of property owners on the street between Central and Glendale avenues favoring the installing of electric light standards.

The members of the board seem divided as to whether it would be better to install the single or five light standards on Colorado boulevard. It seemed to be the opinion of certain members that boulevard lights of the five-light class should be used on Broadway, Brand, Central, Colorado, Glendale avenue and Verdugo road. It seemed to be the opinion of other members of the board that the five-light standards should be used only on Broadway and Brand boulevard, giving as their reason that the expense of lighting to the city would be too great if five-light standards should be used throughout the city.

The entire discussion was in an informal manner and no definite action was taken as to encouraging the petition for the installation of lights on Colorado boulevard between Central and Glendale avenues, but the manager of the public service department was instructed to look up the relative cost of the single and five light standards. The manager will report as to the relative cost of these lights at the next meeting of the board.

A lengthy communication was read from the attorney-general's office calling attention to the fact that fines for motor speeding are not payable into the city treasury, but should be paid into the state treasury. The question was referred to the city attorney for investigation and report at the next meeting of the trustees.

A petition was presented by property owners on Second street between Central avenue and Columbus avenue asking that proceedings be commenced for the improvement of that street between Central and Columbus avenues. On motion the question was referred to the city engineer with instructions to ascertain the frontage ownership of which favors improvement, and if he finds sufficient frontage favoring improvement, he is to prepare resolutions ordering the improvement made.

On motion the demands were read and referred to the finance committee, to be reported on at the next regular meeting. The demands read are as follows:

THE HOLY SPIRIT

REV. FRANCIS OF LOS ANGELES PRESENTS FIRST ADDRESS IN LECTURE COURSE

The Rev. J. A. Francis, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church of Los Angeles, electrified a great audience at the high school Monday evening. He took for his subject "The Christian Doctrine of the Holy Spirit" and handled it in such a masterly way and convincing manner that his audience was made to feel that the scepter of authority still lingers with the prophet of God.

The writer feels a hesitancy in making a report of the address because there was that fervency of spirit, clearness of vision, and spiritual dynamics that the printed page cannot give, and without which the lecture is shorn of much that otherwise made it a power. Dr. Francis prefaced his remarks by stating that the doctrine of the trinity is too fathomable to be explained. Some one has said, "All that has been said of the Father; all that has been said of God is the Son, and all that has been felt of God is by the Holy Spirit." Christ did not talk much about the Holy Spirit till the closing of his ministry. On the last night he said a great deal and what he said was explicit. Then the main address dealt with the answer to four questions:

What shall I think about the Holy Spirit?

What is the Holy Spirit come into the world to do for the believer? How great is his power?

How shall I receive the Holy Spirit?

In dealing with the first question as to how I am to think about the Holy Spirit, he said: "We are not to think of the spirit of God as a gift separate and apart from God. My spirit is like me and God's spirit is like God. We are to think of Christ as the manifestation of God and the spirit not as putting God along-side of us, but in us. Christ was close to his disciples, but the Holy Spirit comes to put God in man." He gave clearness to the idea that we are brought into immediate contact with God.

In the discussion of the second question as to what we shall expect the Holy Spirit to do for us, he said we cannot understand the word which is translated "comforter," for the original is "paraclete," which is best understood as comforter, helper and advocate. He said: "I undertake to move this table and some one is my helper; then he is my paraclete, so the Holy Spirit will be your helper to lift on all you are called to lift, and you will never be called upon to lift alone. Furthermore, the Holy Spirit is to be our helper in bringing things pertaining to Christ to our remembrance. Christ's command to evangelize the world is to be carried out by men whose minds are to be supplemented by the help of the Holy Spirit. He shall also teach. It is this sort of divine intellect that makes a disinterested man interesting. He illustrated this by a speaker who had a hard time delivering his message and his audience had much difficulty in hearing him; while on another occasion down in the bowery of New York he heard a lassie telling her experience and her auditors leant forward to catch her every word and were greatly moved; the difference being the presence of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit helps us by putting the O. K. on all we testify. Here the speaker drew a familiar illustration from the experiences of Sam Jones, who on one occasion went out to see some new guns fired for the first time. He was told that the gun must be 100 times larger than the ball to be thrown, but he said to himself why not use a bamboo stick and load it? In this case the man behind the gun would be hurt and no effective shooting would be done. Likewise, some testimonies are no more than a flee kick against a sinner. If I put myself into the gun and the Holy Spirit fires the gun, that is preaching, and is as true of laymen as of preachers.

He said also that the Holy Spirit is to be our helper as disciples of Christ in convincing the world of sin. The world is to be convinced of the "weakness of unbelief" in the divine son of God through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in the believer. In a certain town there was a run on a bank that was solvent. The banker sought the one man in that town in whom the people had entire confidence and said: "Can you help me?" Whereupon this man went to the bank and made his way through the crowd and made a deposit of $3000, and those who were anxious to withdraw their deposits were soon leaving the bank one by one until all were gone. One man showed faith. The Holy Spirit makes Christ so real that the world is con-

TROPICO ITEMS

MRS. THOMPSON ENTERTAINS BROTHERS FROM ALASKA AND PANAMA

Mrs. Francis Booth entertained with a smart luncheon at her home on Gardena avenue Monday at which her guests were Mrs. Gene Osborne and Mrs. M. R. Bouton of Hartford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rice, who have been spending a few days at their home on Tropic and Central avenues, have returned to their beach home in Venice, where they will remain several days.

Seated at a table which was centered with a large bowl of roses, Sir Francis and Mrs. Booth entertained with a dinner party at which the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lezinsky and Miss Hattie Rujawsky of Los Angeles, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Bullis, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Chandler and Mrs. D. O. Martin, motored to Los Angeles Saturday afternoon, where they attended the reception given at the Florence Crittenton Home in honor of Dr. Kate Waller Barrett.

The Glendale and Tropico ladies who will be the guests of the auxiliary of the Florence Crittenton Home at luncheon Wednesday will leave here at ten o'clock and those who will go by trolley will meet at the Pacific Electric building at 10:30, later going to the home.

Mrs. Mary Chadwick of South Glendale avenue is entertaining as her house guests her brothers, Dr. Chas. A. Thompson of Cape Prince of Wales, Alaska, and Dr. James R. Thompson of Panama. Dr. Thompson of Alaska, who is Mrs. Chadwick's oldest brother, and her brother from Panama, who is the youngest of the family, have not seen each other for fifteen years, and the reunion at the home of their sister, here in this ideal Southland, is a most delightful and pleasant one.

LOCATING GOVERNMENT LAND

Tupper-Robinson Company will leave within a week to locate some more people in Moon Valley, in Kern county. They have already located several of our best citizens and have about six quarter sections left in the same township which are as good as those already taken. Anyone interested can get full particulars as to land, water conditions, etc., by calling on them. 404 Glendale avenue, Glendale, Cal.

INTERESTING MEETING

The Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. W. E. Evans, 113 Orange street, on Monday. Plans were completed for the open day to be given before the club April 27th. This day is in commemoration of Shakespeare's birthday and an appropriate program will be given and refreshments will be served.

The section also made plans for their annual luncheon, which will be given on Monday, May 3, at Newhall canyon. The ladies will be taken to the canyon by automobile and a May day picnic luncheon served.

At Monday's meeting the section studied the second act of "Much Ado About Nothing" and have planned to have the third act on the afternoon of the picnic at Newhall canyon.

"POLLY" LEADING MAN QUILTS—ALMOST

A certain scene of "Polly of the Circus" requires the leading man to carry the star up a flight of stairs in full view of the audience. Now, Dwight Stevenson is not proportioned in such a manner as to rival Sandow for the heavy-lift championship of the world. And Barbara Mitchell is a very substantial looking young lady. Some member of the cast, evidently a comedian, noticed these facts during rehearsal at the theater the other day. He secured a long ladder and mounted it in that portion of the set where the stairway ought to be. Stevenson came on for his scene. He looked up at the ladder extending into the mysterious regions of the fly-loft. Then he looked down at the young lady who lay "unconscious" in his arms. (Dramatic pause.) Mr. Stevenson forthwith said something which was not written down in his lines. He deposited the star very gently upon a couple of convenient chairs and started for home. It was only after the removal of the ladder and a sincere promise upon the part of the manager to put in an elevator that he was induced to go on with his part.

IMPOLITE CLERKS

OBSERVER MAKES A KICK HE HAS SAVED UP FOR SEVEN YEARS

The other day I went into a store to buy a small article that I needed, and the clerk showed me several kinds. It happened that I had never used any of the kinds shown, so I explained to the clerk just what I wanted to use it for and asked for his advice as to which would be the most suitable for my purpose. His answer was "it's up to you," and that was all the satisfaction I got. As a consequence of this way of treating customers, I went to another store, where I could obtain the information needed.

This is an experience I have had many times, and I do not hesitate to say that a great deal of valuable business is driven away from town by just such tactics on the part of the thoughtless salesmen and saleswomen. For my part, I will not buy from such a clerk, if I can help it, because I resent his indifference to my interests and the interests of his employer, and because I do not care to encourage such an absolute brainless attitude on the part of anybody.

I wonder if it ever occurred to one of these clerks what kind of a future he is preparing.

This is an age when service counts above anything else. The fellow who begins life by refusing to get in line is on a fast train for the scrap heap. When the boss gets wise to him he has to get out in a hurry. He may manage to hang on for a few years and keep up a good front by spending his small salary on glad rags, but if he ever has the nerve to marry, his wife and children will have to support themselves and probably him also. Of course, that would not worry him in the least, for he has no sense of responsibility whatever and seems to have a genuine contempt for anybody that expects to act like a reasonable being. You should have seen the superior glance that fellow gave me the other day. I notice most of these get-along-any-way youngsters have a very bored air when anybody asks them to do a little something to earn their wages.

I don't want anybody to think I'm writing this just out of ill temper. Like the pope's mule in the story, "I have saved this kick for seven years." One or two instances of the kind would not have started me going, but there is getting to be entirely too much of it.

A young lady whom I have often heard praised takes just the opposite course. She familiarizes herself with all her lines of goods and remembers the needs of patrons. When asked for expert advice she gives her attention to the problem in hand, asks sensible questions, gets the customer's point of view, and strives to make some use of her brains. She stands well with her employer and the public. Moreover, she has had common sense, so far, not to take a second look at any of these it's-up-to-you jelly fishes.—Observer.

NIMRODS VERY SUCCESSFUL

Many Glendale people have made the trip into the Little Bear country during the past week and all reports tend to show that the trout there are very abundant. A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phelon and son, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Courtney, Mr. T. H. Rosenberger, all of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Brigham of Los Angeles, left here about three o'clock Saturday morning and spent that day and Sunday in this beautiful country.

Mr. Phelon reports that the traveling for autos is very good, with one or two exceptions of muddy places, but these will be eliminated within the next few days. The climb up the mountain road is grand, and the most beautiful scenery in Southern California can be enjoyed on this trip. Saturday morning was rather foggy, but upon climbing higher and reaching points above the fogs and clouds, the scenery is magnificent.

Mr. Phelon and party were very successful in their chosen sport and brought back some beautiful specimens of the finny tribe. A representative of The News was fortunate enough to receive one salmon trout that was a delicious meal itself.

Mr. George H. Melford, also of Glendale, was seen piloting a party of autoists up into this beautiful country Sunday. As the season progresses no doubt many of our Isaac Waltons will take advantage of the fishing at Little Bear. As yet Big Bear is impossible for autos.

The Glendale contingent reports that the fish and game wardens are limiting the catches to ten pounds and one fish in this district, but all anglers should be satisfied with this providing they were fortunate enough to land as fine trout as this party brought back with them to Glendale.

NORTH GLENDAL

WEEK-END HOUSE PARTY—MRS. WHEELER HOSTESS AT A DINNER PARTY

Master Ray Spinks of East Twentyninth street, Los Angeles, spent Saturday in North Glendale, where he was the guest of his cousin, Mr. Alfred Priest of North Central avenue.

Mrs. E. F. Clement and daughter, little Ethel Mae, returned to their home in Lindsay, Cal., after spending a most delightful five weeks' visit with Mr. Clement's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clement of 1321 North Pacific avenue.

Mrs. Menzo Williams of North Central avenue will entertain as her house guest during the week Mrs. William Wolf of Cincinnati, Ohio, who is spending some time in Southern California.

Mr. A. R. Townsend of 507 North Brand boulevard returned Saturday evening from a business trip up north having stopped at Bakersfield, Needles and other places.

Mr. H. F. Brinkworth of Los Angeles has purchased the property belonging to Mrs. Robert H. Wilson at 1020 Stocker street and with his family has taken possession. Mr. Brinkworth is a well-known artificial stone manufacturer, with his place of business located at 5011 Moneta avenue, Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. R. Townsend of 507 North Brand boulevard entertained as her house guests during the past week Mrs. Rose Peyran of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. E. F. Achard of Chicago. Several delightful social affairs were given by the gracious hostess in honor of her charming guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Peterson of 1225 Mountain street enjoyed a motor trip to Redondo last Sunday, spending the day at that popular resort.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Trepanier of Stocker street entertained with a week-end house party and an elaborate dinner Saturday evening in honor of their wedding anniversary. The attractive home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Cecil Brunner roses and lilies of the valley being artistically arranged in beautiful vases were placed upon the mantel and on the table where covers were laid for eleven. The place cards were hand painted, the same motif being used in the decorations, and a delicious full-course Spanish dinner was enjoyed by the happy guests. After dinner five hundred was played, the tally cards also being hand painted, the same decoration being carried out on them. Sunday the party was added to and a picnic dinner was enjoyed in Verdugo park and a delightful day was spent in the open. Among the guests who had the pleasure of the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Colclugh, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Alton, Mrs. Otto Bohlen, and Mrs. W. L. Reynolds of Los Angeles; the other guests added to the party being Los Angeles friends.

Mrs. F. J. Wheeler, assisted by Mrs. W. L. Wheeler of 1330 North Maryland avenue, entertained at a beautifully appointed dinner party Sunday evening complimentary to Mrs. F. J. Wheeler's brother and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Masters, who just arrived from the East, where Mr. Masters went to claim his bride and who are now on their way to their home in San Francisco. The decorations were very lovely. American beauty roses being used in the living-rooms and bride roses, with ferns, in the dining-room. A centerpiece of bride roses with the ferns graced the table and the place favors were tiny bags made of white tulle which were filled with rice and tied with dainty pink ribbons. The place cards also were very suggestive of the occasion, sprays of orange blossoms being fastened to each one. Covers were laid for twelve guests from Pasadena, Los Angeles and Glendale, who extended the heartiest of congratulations and best wishes to Mr. Masters and his charming bride.

COLUMBUS AVENUE P. T. A.

The Columbus Ave. Parent-Teacher association will hold a regular meeting at the school Thursday at 3:10. There will be music and also a demonstration of the work and aims of the Campfire movement among girls by Mrs. H. A. McPherson, guardian of one of the local Campfire groups.

The principal, Mrs. Cora Taylor, will speak on "The Boy From the Mother's and a Teacher's Standpoint." She speaks from experience and not merely from theory. She will be well worth hearing. Refreshments will be served and all who are interested in this work are invited.

MILLIONS KILLED

One is always a little skeptical about statistical figures given without official authority, and therefore, as there have been no authoritative reports en masse concerning the losses of men sustained by the nations in the European war, the statements now accepted, apparently, by the eastern papers and magazines as correct are couched in figures so enormous that one dares not give them entire credence.

However, these figures were consolidated from the daily reports of the military and naval establishments of the various countries by newspaper men and they are entitled to just the amount of credit that the individual reader pleases to give them. These figures actually stupefy the imagination and fill one's soul with horror. The total losses are given at about nine million men. This includes the killed, wounded, prisoners and missing.

Roughly, we may place the loss as: Germans—killed, one million; missing, wounded and prisoners, three million. Allies—killed, one and a half million; wounded, prisoners and missing, three and a half millions.

It is easy to talk in terms of millions. The very labor-saving device of our decimal system of arithmetic conceals from the imagination the stupendous nature of the thing we are talking of. But if we will really consider what it means in human agony and human loss, and the permanent check of civilization to wipe out by violence in six months three or four million men and to cripple many of them for life, twice as many more, the extremity of horror of this war will begin to dawn on the imagination. There has been nothing like it since the world began and if there were to be many more like it civilization would soon become extinct.

On motion, the Casa Verdugo annexation election returns were taken up to get the canvass. The chair appointed Trustees Thompson and Grist as a committee to canvass the vote. The votes showed that there were 124 votes favoring annexation and 159 against annexation. The question of annexation was declared lost. The resolution embodying the above statement concerning the canvassing of the vote was read and adopted.

An ordinance prohibiting heavy traffic on Colorado boulevard was taken up for a third and final reading. On motion the same was then adopted.

The clerk, J. C. Sherer, announced to the board that within a week the merchants' license ordinance recently passed would go into effect, and he asked instructions as to what he should do concerning preparing license certificates.

It seemed to be the opinion of the board that all licenses should be paid to the city clerk, and it would be the duty of the chief of police to make collections from those from whom license is due when they failed to make payment at the clerk's office.

No further business being before the board, same adjourned.

Do you know how to talk over a telephone? Many who do not are a constant source of annoyance to others.

Curious how, as one grows old, little incidents of youth stand out in memory, while great events of manhood fade away.

As many of the ladies as possible are asked to come prepared to go to Sierra Madre to consult the ladies of that city who have recently conducted a very successful festival and flower show.

COLLEGE GLEE CLUB TO SING

The Occidental Woman's Glee club is scheduled to give a concert in Glendale on Friday, April 30, in the high school auditorium. The program will consist of several original stunts, vocal and instrumental solos and readings, as well as club numbers, and is full of "pep" from start to finish. Watch the papers for further information.

W. C. T. U. STRAWBERRY SOCIAL

Mrs. A. M. Brooks, 211 South Jackson street, will entertain the W. C. T. U. with a porch social on Friday afternoon, April 30th. Strawberries, cream and cake, ten cents. A good program of music. Readings and echoes from the county convention will be given. Everybody welcome.

We are hardly in a position to be honest toward others until we are thoroughly honest toward ourselves.

A Chicago woman was rolling a peanut through the street when overwhelmed by a crowd of the curious. If she waits to play for safety let her roll a perambulator.

"I see, Mary, that in our city there is one policeman for every 521 inhabitants," said the lady of the house. "Don't know, and don't care," was the maid's reply. "I've got mine already."

When driving on the public highways, always have consideration for the other fellow. The rights of others should be and must be respected. How prone some drivers of autos and wagons are to keep in the middle of the road when meeting others.

The Cinderella club met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Kinser at the Pearl apartments on Hawthorne Saturday afternoon. Needlework and chat were enjoyed for a time and then dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Great quantities of roses made the air fragrant and the afternoon passed all too quickly. Club members present besides the hostess were Mrs. L. L. Frazee, Mrs. M. G. Jackson, Miss Frances Jackson, Mrs. C. E. Howell, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. V. E. Skiles and Mrs. Mabel Ocker.

A four-course luncheon was given by Mrs. H. A. Church and Mrs. C. C. The guests were Mrs. Chas. Stone and Mrs. Mullen of Pasadena, Mrs. Chas. Carr and Miss Grace Carr of Ocean Park, Mrs. Chas. Munson, Mrs. Geo. Marsh and Mrs. Archie Parker of Glendale, Mrs. C. A. Billings of Arcadia, Mrs. Andrew Wilbur of San Gabriel, Mrs. Hutchens of San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. S. W. Morgan and Mrs. Emmet Waters of Marshalltown, Mesdames Minnie Rhoades, B. A. Rhoades, Chas. Mrs. Gertrude Ofenberg of Elsinore is a house guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Lawler of 1431 Burdett street. Mrs. Ofenberg is a sister of Dr. Lawler.

Mrs. W. B. Gaylord of 134 East First street will attend the W. C. T. U. convention in Los Angeles this week. Mrs. Gaylord is county organizer and a member of the convention by virtue of that office, and is looking forward to the three days with much pleasure.

While there they visited Mrs. Abram Baker and family, who live on a large orange ranch called "Thislecroft" near Lordsburg. The roads are splendid and the day was ideal for a drive, so it was a very pleasant afternoon all around.

FALSE FIRE ALARM

At 1:10 today the fire department received a call that there was a fire at the residence of A. Clark, 1508 West Broadway. Mr. Clark had been vulcanizing the inner tube of a tire, which caught fire, making considerable smoke, although causing no damage. The small blaze was easily extinguished and Mr. Clark says that some neighbor must have turned in the alarm.

STOCKDALE FOUND GUILTY OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY

An assault and battery case was tried in the justice court before Judge Miller on Monday between A. C. Perkins of 1630 Dryden street, who is employed by the York ranch, plaintiff, and John Stockdale of the Central express, defendant. According to the testimony offered at the trial Stockdale was driving a team along the San Fernando road on Tuesday, April 13, and Perkins cut around him very close in an auto, slightly touching one of the horses. Whereupon Stockdale whipped up his team, caught up with Perkins, pulled him from the machine and gave him a severe beating. Witnesses called for the plaintiff were Geo. A. Moore and L. L. Goddard. Stockdale was found guilty by Judge Miller and fined $15.

REV. JOHNSON GOES NORTH

Rev. Bede A. Johnson of the First Methodist church left this afternoon for San Francisco, where he goes as secretary of a committee chosen from the members of the Southern California conference to present the matter of a Methodist book store for Los Angeles before the Methodist ministers of California in session in the northern city.

It has been deemed advisable that there be a place in Southern California where Methodist publications, books and periodicals may be secured and the following committee was appointed to present this matter: Dr. F. D. Mather, president; Dr. Bede A. Johnson, secretary; Dr. John Oliver, Dr. Alfred Inwood, Dr. H. W. Peck, Dr. Chas. E. Locke, Dr. Matt S. Hughes, former Lieut.-Gov. A. J. Wallace, ex-Senator A. M. Drew.

HAUGHTY SEMINOLES

Many people of the northern states are unaware that there dwells in the fastness of the Florida Everglades one of the most interesting and picturesque bands of American aborigines in the United States, known as the Seminole Indians, who are now as separate and distinct from the white race as when Columbus first held mass on the shores of Cuba. These are the remnants of the one-time mighty nation of the Seminoles, who defied the United States government for more than half a century and persistently refused colonization. While the numerous wars and forced emigration have reduced their numbers to a few hundred, their mode of living, dispositions and customs are in many respects the same as when the haughty De Soto sailed into Tampa bay in 1539.

The Seminoles live to themselves, avoiding contact with the white race as much as possible and seldom if ever taking whites into their confidence, and on account of the almost inaccessible nature of the country in which they live, little is known of their intimate home life. Unlike the Indians of the West, they persistently decline any assistance from the government, saying in response to offers for their support, "We only wish to be let alone."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

vinced. Then he convinces of righteousness. One who had a dirty story to tell was met by another who said: "You go into that little room where Mr. Gladstone is and tell that to him and I'll give you a hundred dollars," and the man went away and there was not a man in England who would do it. So the righteousness of Christ is made so real that the world is convinced. The Holy Spirit becomes our helper in convincing the world of judgment—not future—but one that has come already. Christ set his heel on Satan like a grasshopper and the Holy Spirit will enable you to put your heel on the devil and keep it there, and will give you a triumphant life. Here he said: "Does the war of Europe upset your faith?" Then remember the words of David: "He will not be discouraged nor fail till he hath set judgment in the earth." After the war they will ask for something better and the answer will be the sermon on the mount, for the prince of this world hath been judged.

When we consider "how great is his power" the speaker drew from the stars of heaven as the work of God's fingers. He also said if a copper wire carries a current equal to 100,000 men, how much will a man carry when God turns on the current, and what must be the church's power when every Christian marches with a triumphant tread in the power that was revealed in the resurrection of a life from the dead. The Holy Spirit is God's power. The Holy Spirit is God's power.

Lastly, "How may I receive the Holy Spirit?" (1) God gives the Holy Spirit to those that ask him. Ask and expect him to give. (2) God gives the Holy Spirit to them that obey him. Take him as the Lord of life and obey in all things.

The lecture was the first in a series of five lectures to be given under the auspices of the Ministerial association, comprising the churches of Glendale, Tropic and Casa Verdugo. The lectures are free to all. The next in the series will be given next Monday evening by the Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D. D., pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, on the subject, "The Star of the East."

H. JACKSON HARTSELL, Secy. Ministerial Assn.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

The final meeting of the executive committee of the Brown and Curry meetings will be held in the Baptist church Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, April 21, 1915. All persons having accounts against said committee are notified to present the same at this meeting, as all matters pertaining to same will be taken care of and the organization will pass into history. A final report will be printed in the columns of this paper.

W. E. EDMONDS, Chairman. H. J. HARTSELL, Secretary.

DEBATERS READY

Atty. J. F. Rutherford has arrived from New York and Monday met Rev. John H. Troy, with whom he is to debate on theological subjects at the Trinity auditorium. The series of debates will open tomorrow evening, when A. H. McMillen of Nova Scotia will preside. At the following evening's meeting Mayor O. A. Lane of Glendale will be the presiding officer.

The subject of the opening debate in which Rev. Troy argues on the negative side, is: "The Scriptures clearly teach that the dead are unconscious between the moment of death and the moment of awakening to the resurrection."

RAISE MONEY FOR MISSIONS

At the Sunday morning service at the First Congregational church the people were asked to raise $307 for the missionary work of the church. In a very few minutes $270 was pledged, and with what will be received from those not present, the total amount will be raised.

The missionary interest in this church has always been good. The people learned that the Congregational church maintains 19 missions with 106 stations, stations at which missionaries reside, and 1,457 out stations where regular work is maintained.

In these fields there are 636 American missionaries and a native working force of 5,091. The work is prosecuted principally along four lines, evangelistic, educational, medical and social.

In the United States the Congregationalists prosecute a vigorous campaign in the frontier districts and among the foreigners in our midst. On the Pacific a number of men and women are devoting all their time to work among the Japanese, Chinese, Hindus, Armenians and Mexicans. In Los Angeles there are several churches and missions for these people and much progress is being made.

At the evening service the pastor discussed several phases about "The Truth" and "Telling the Truth." The preacher is more courageous in telling the truth than the average man is to have the truth told about himself. The truth should be told, but people ought to heed the admonition of the apostle Paul: "Speak the truth in love." Truth should be uttered for truth's sake and not to injure or pain another. Silence may be better than even telling the truth sometimes.

We ought to so live as to refute the charge that "we are a nation of liars." We need more of a "real" world and less of the "reel."

Carlyle was quoted as saying, "The thing is not only to avoid error, but to attain immense masses of truth."

MRS. J. L. DENNEY

Mrs. J. L. Denney passed away at 4 o'clock this morning at her home, 419 Verdugo road. Mrs. Denney had been in feeble health for the past twenty-five years, but of late she had seemed much improved. On Saturday she went to Lankershim and seemed to enjoy her visit very much. On Sunday she began to fail and it was soon evident to the physician who called that the end was near. Mr. Denney will leave tomorrow over the Salt Lake with the remains of his wife for the old home in Fillmore, Missouri, where she will be laid to rest beside her two children.

Mrs. Denney was born in Fillmore June 4, 1842, and spent her entire life there until five years ago last fall when she came to Glendale with her husband to spend the winter. They were so pleased with this section of California that they remained eighteen months and then returned to Fillmore to make preparations to make their permanent home here.

The deceased leaves besides her husband, two sons who reside in Fillmore. She was a member of the South Methodist church of Fillmore, where the funeral services will be held.

The many Glendale friends of the family, including N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., are extending their aid and sympathy to the stricken husband at this time. The remains are at the Pulliam undertaking parlors awaiting shipment tomorrow.

ORGANIZED COUNTY OFFICERS

It would be difficult to overstate the pernicious influence upon the legislature of the organizations of county officers. They represent an influence so powerful that any legislation having for its object the regulation of official fees in the interest of the general public has small chance of passage in the face of the opposition which these organizations can bring to bear upon it. We have associations of sheriffs, of assessors, of coroners, of district attorneys and what not. These organizations are not new. They have existed for years and they are exercising an increasing influence upon the legislature year by year.

The allied sheriffs, for example, session after session, succeeded in defeating an innocent-appearing bill which provided that insane patients on the way to asylums should be in charge of asylum attendants. The interest of the sheriffs was confined largely to the sheriff's office at San Francisco for the reason that by careful manipulation the San Francisco office was able to make good money out of the transportation of the insane.

Under the law deputy sheriffs were allowed five dollars a day and their traveling expenses for taking the insane to the asylums. By taking a late train to Stockton, a deputy sheriff in charge of a patient was able to make a two days' trip of it. In this way, instead of receiving five dollars, he received ten dollars. If there were more than one patient, he received ten dollars for each patient. There were other abuses from other counties, of course, but the greater part of the abuse—and therefore the interest in the defeat of any measure that interfered with this sort of graft—was in the sheriff's office at San Francisco.

The trained attendants at the asylums were paid two dollars a day. In the event of their being sent for a patient, all the additional expenses the state would have been put to were the traveling expenses of the attendant and the patient.

Repeatedly it was shown to committees of the legislature that not only were the asylum attendants better prepared to care for the patients than deputy sheriffs, but by charging them with this service the state would save annually at least $25,000.

The organized sheriffs were so effective in combating the proposed reform, however, that session after session bills were defeated.

So effective have these organizations of public officials been that now practically every county office has its state organization. An obscure little bill introduced at this session, for example, to prevent undertakers serving as coroners, met with the immediate opposition of the organized coroners of the state, with the result that the bill has no show of passage.

The organized supervisors and the organized county surveyors also have their little troubles with the legislature, but the reader may rest assured that any measure introduced in the legislature looking to the curtailment of the privileges or perquisites of these officers will be promptly set upon by interested gentlemen representing every county in the state.

MONROVIAN KILLED

Daniel McKay was killed instantly Sunday at the Azusa avenue crossing on the San Bernardino car line when the motor truck he was driving was struck by an electric car.

McKay approached the tracks from a hill and his vehicle had attained such momentum that it was impossible for him to stop it in time. McKay was employed by the Pioneer Nursery company of Monrovia.

The car was in charge of Conductor Smith and Motorman Pillsbury.

WHAT WILSON IS DOING

Mr. Wilson does not want to destroy the existing order. He wants to save it by a necessary medication. It is certain that he will make mistakes and likely that he will make blunders, but there is a better quality of political hope in him than in anyone else at present visible in either party.

We had to put the Democrats in power, because the Republicans did not have it in them to do what the country needed.

Mr. Wilson was far and away the best visible Democrat to be president. He has done some wonderfully good things, and he is likely to do more as he has in him the capacity to do them. If he has also in him the capacity to get in wrong on occasion, that is to be expected and is no more than the legitimate cost of having him for president. In the end he ought to get with him his full share of the honest people who are loyal to existing order and don't want anybody to lose property except by due process of just laws.

We need to recall now and then what he is trying to do and what he has to contend with. He is trying to arrest or restrict the control of human life in this country by too few people who have acquired too much power. Almost any intelligent, observant person will agree that this desired restriction of the power of property and business has come to be necessary. Organization, stimulated and extended by all the mechanical inventions, has made life a new problem, and one that is very difficult to work out. Mr. Wilson is trying to do his share of the work of solving it.—From Life.

DEATH RATE STATISTICS

A death rate in 1913 of 14.1 per 1000 of the estimated population in the registration area of the United States compared with 13.9 per 1000 in 1912 is shown in a report by the census bureau at Washington. The number of deaths in the registration area, containing about two-thirds of the population, was approximately 890,948.

Washington state showed the lowest rate, being 8.5 per 1000, while New Hampshire's was the highest, with 17.1. The lowest rate shown in 1913 by any of the fifty registration cities, with populations of 100,000 or over in 1910, was that for Seattle, which was 8.4 while Memphis showed the highest, with 20.8.

The average age at death for both sexes from all causes combined was 79.8; for males alone, 39.2; for females, 40.6. Nearly 18 per cent of all deaths were of infants under one year of age, and more than 25 per cent were of children under five years.

The death rate from tuberculosis declined from 149.5 per 1000 population in 1912 to 147.6 in 1913. The rate from cancer rose from 63 per 1000 in 1900 to 78.9 in 1913. The number of suicides was 9998, the rate being 15.8 per 1000, compared with 16 in 1912.

BIG GOVERNMENT LAND OPENING

Mr. T. A. Johnson of Calipatria, after talking with government representatives who have been in the Imperial valley, not only investigating surveys, but the withdrawn lands, advises that in the very near future some of the finest land in the Imperial valley, which was originally withdrawn on account of the Yuma project, is to be thrown open again to settlers.

It seems there are a few entrymen who had filed on their land previous to withdrawal who will be given some priority right, but from men who know, there seems to be about ten or twelve per cent of the fine lands around Calipatria, between the Salton sea and the high line, Niland, and the third standard, that are going to be thrown open. The exact scheme is not yet known, whether the government will cut down to 80-acre tracts, whether they will auction it off, or how it will be done, but the government has engineers investigating the proposition.
